Active Isolated Stretching (AIS) is a technique that helps people maximize the effectiveness of stretching without causing the sort of discomfort that keeps a lot of us away from it. The technique uses four basic principles:

Isolate the muscle to be stretched.

Repeat the stretch eight to 10 times.

Hold each stretch for no more than two seconds.

Exhale on the stretch; inhale on the release.

Dynamic Stabilization

This is a Pilates based class integrated with stabilization tools like the half foam roller, stability balls, thera-bands, and light weights. The class is designed to lengthen tight muscles, mobilize the hips and shoulders, and challenge core strength and stability. No experience is necessary, but a strong mind body connection and postural awareness is a must! Wonderful for post re-habilitation and re-patterning. Participants must be able to get up and down off of the floor.
