Code of Conduct

Our Code of Conduct is designed to ensure the safety, comfort, and enjoyment of the facilities for all members. Failure to abide by this Code may result in a warning, the termination of membership, or the notification of the proper authorities as the situation may warrant.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Members are to treat fellow members, volunteers, and staff with courtesy and respect.
- The health, safety, and privacy of members are the top concern for the JCC and shall not be compromised at any time.
- Members are all responsible for conducting themselves in a way that will not compromise the safety or enjoyment of other members.
- The Code is not meant to be exhaustive, and all members are expected to behave in a manner that aligns with the spirit of the Code.

HEALTH & SAFETY

- Equipment must not be modified or used in a manner other than that for which it was intended.
- Please return the equipment to appropriate storage racks or back to where it belongs.
- Respect is paramount in creating a safe space for all members.
- On the topic of mobile phones and personal electronic devices, members must observe the following:
 - Cell phone conversations should be taken out to the hallway.
 - Headphones must be used and the volume kept at a reasonable level.
 - Use of any device with camera/recording features is not permitted in the locker rooms for privacy concerns.
 - Before taking pictures or recordings in the facility, consent must be obtained from any person whose image or voice is captured and from the JCC.
- Members must wipe equipment with the products provided after use.
- Sharing equipment - If you are doing multiple sets, allow others to use the equipment in between your sets. No resting on equipment between sets.
- Members must not shout, use foul or abusive language or otherwise behave in a threatening or intimidating manner.
- Appropriate exercise clothing and shoes must be worn when using the facilities.
No offensive text or graphics.
- Members must report any suspected damage to equipment to Fitness Center staff or Fitness Director ASAP
- All complaints are to be directed to staff on duty or the Fitness Director within 24 hours of the incident occurring (or as soon as possible if doing so within 24 hours is not possible).
